Arcturus Realty Corporation Announces New Business Structure

Toronto, ON – January 4, 2011 - Arcturus Realty Corporation, Canada's leading independent third party provider of essential real estate services, has engineered significant changes to its overall business structure. Effective January 1, 2011, Arcturus will be led by function to support the focus of having the right people in the right places to deliver service excellence...and success. The foundation of this structure consists of three functional teams: Client Services, Transactional Services, and Business Development. Support for the functional areas will be delivered by Human Resources, Payroll, Information Technology, Legal Services, Corporate Accounting, and Marketing & Communications, providing 360° business-wide services.

With the move to this new structure, the following individuals have accepted new roles within the organization: Barbara Rodgers has been appointed the company's President, responsible for leading the business in delivering for success; Geoff Harrison continues as CEO with a focus on business development and client relationships; Laurel Arnott has been promoted to the role of Senior Vice President, Client Services, overseeing the Loblaw/Provigo, Eastern Ontario, Quebec and Atlantic Canada clients to ensure consistency in service excellence; Robert Last has been promoted to the role of Senior Vice President, Client Services, overseeing Retrocom, our Western Canada, Greater Toronto Area and Western Ontario clients to ensure consistency in service excellence, as well as a heightened focus on business development; and Rob Duteau has been named Vice President, Business Development and Leasing to reinforce our focus on broadening our business in all regions.

"We will continue to demand that each role in our organization is defined and maximizes value, for our clients and for each other," says newly appointed president, Barbara Rodgers. "The future of the company is healthy and these strategic changes will put us on a further trajectory to success."
